

Attend this session for a candid discussion about the realities of civil litigation and its impact on lawyer well-being, including real-life experiences and practical methods to overcome the lows and implement well-being tools along the way.