

Hannah C. DuganCandidate for Milwaukee County Circuit Court Branch 31

Hannah C. Dugan was elected to Branch 31 in 2016; she enthusiastically has served in the Milwaukee County Circuit Court Misdemeanor, Probate and Civil Divisions. Prior to election, Dugan practiced at Legal Action of Wisconsin, Inc. and Legal Aid Society, Inc. as a litigation attorney and in law firm administrative positions. While in private civil practice, she also led several major local nonprofits in interim C-suite jobs. For years she taught Marquette University law and graduate students as a clinical supervisor and adjunct professor.

She is grateful to serve not only behind the bench and but also beyond the bench- currently as elected Wisconsin Judicial Council member, Wisconsin Trial Judges Association's board member, and Zeidler Group Advisory Board chair. She is the Association for Women Lawyers Scholarship Committee chair and UW- Madison Law School Board of Visitors member. She is a regular Milwaukee Independent contributing author.

Dugan is a former MBA president (1999-2000), and current member of AWL, WAAL, WHLA, and Serjeant's Inn. Her memberships include: Gesu Parish, MICAH, WI Policy Forum, League of Women Voters, NAACP, Polish Center of WI, Southshore Chamber of Commerce, Grassroots Northshore, Grassroots Southshore, Milwaukee Turners, and Milw. Co. Historical Society.

Dugan is a "Double W"- graduating twice from UW-Madison - BA '81 and JD '87, and a Boston College Golden Eagle -MA '83. In 2021 she was named a Finalist in Shephard Express's "Best of Milwaukee" listings for "Most Trusted Public Official"—predictably and unquestionably coming in a distant second to Judge Derek Mosley.
