

Nidhi Kashyap*Candidate for Milwaukee County Circuit Court Branch 25*

Nidhi Kashyap is a courtroom and community leader born and raised in Wisconsin. She is currently a Family Court Commissioner, where she presides over hearings in paternity cases, restraining orders and injunctions pre and post judgment divorce hearings and other family law matters. She has both her undergraduate and law degrees from UW-Madison.

After college, Nidhi spent a year working as a legal assistant to an immigration lawyer based in Madison, Wisconsin. In law school, she developed an interest in family law after spending a summer and an academic year at the Remington Center's Family Law Project where she represented incarcerated individuals in family law cases under the supervision of a clinical professor. She also worked on a manual for incarcerated parents.

After graduating law school, Nidhi moved to Milwaukee and started working at Friends of Abused Families, a domestic violence agency in West Bend, which provides shelter and legal services. Nidhi then transitioned to working at a nonprofit agency primarily serving Milwaukee residents, Non-Profit Legal Services of Southeastern Wisconsin, and later became a staff attorney for the Milwaukee County Child Support Agency. At the child support agency, she worked on developing policies and procedures for a pilot project designed to make services more accessible to residents of the 53206 zip code.

In January of 2018, Nidhi was honored to be appointed a Family Court Commissioner by then-chief judge Maxine White.
